SUBJECT : Requests for the Director to Meet with Visitors

1. The following guidelines are set forth to improve procedures for alerting the Director to upcoming events and visits in which his participation is recommended and to ensure a more orderly schedule.

a. All requests for the Director to meet with distinguished visitors (i.e., Congressmen, U. S. Government officials, officials of foreign intelligence organizations, Agency consultants or panels, etc.) should, when time permits, be submitted in writing with an information copy for the Deputy Director.

b. If possible, requests should be submitted at least two weeks (but generally no more than four weeks) in advance of the date of the proposed meeting.

c. Written requests should be as brief as possible, with pertinent background material attached as appropriate. As a minimum, they should contain the date and time of the proposed meeting, its purpose, and the reason for and extent of the Director's suggested participation.
